

NCCBOR Dispute Mediation Services

- ❖ Mediation produces amicable resolutions and can be a useful tool in resolving a conflict
- ❖ Mediation is a NCCBOR service to its members' clients to assist in resolving disputes
- ❖ NCCBOR provides a professionally trained mediator
- ❖ Mediation is voluntary between participants
- ❖ Participants determine the outcome and are encouraged to abide by the determination

I am interested in a mediation session:

Party # 1: _____ Today's Date: _____

Subject of Dispute: _____

Phone #1: _____ Phone #2: _____

Date of Discovery: _____

I am interested in mediating with:

Party # 2: _____

Phone #1: _____ Phone #2: _____

Each party will be contacted by NCCBOR to confirm their interest to participate in a mediation session. After confirming participation interest, a mediator will be assigned. The assigned mediator will contact each party to schedule* the date, time and location of the mediation session.

 The Mediator will make all reasonable efforts to schedule the mediation session.*

Please fax completed form to Attn: Teresa White at 302-762-4840 or Email to twhite@nccbor.com

This service is intended as a voluntary mediation opportunity and does not replace obligations of NCCBOR REALTOR® members to the National Association of REALTORS® arbitration, mediation or ethics process.